UserStudy - Credits

UserStudy is a SaaS platform that allows product and design teams to seamlessly conduct design and concept testing. It is built for modern and agile product teams. With our platform, you can get user feedback at the prototype stage itself within 24 hours. More product information below:

- UserStudy has built an unmoderated testing tool, which helps companies collect qualitative feedback in form of a video. The product will be FOC for the first 3 months, up to 20 sessions
- UserStudy also has its own proprietary research panel that companies can use to conduct interviews and generate useful insights. The pricing per participant will be 50% discounted for Better Capital portfolio companies
